DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 For their Second Amended Complaint in this action, Plaintiffs BirdDog
2 Technology Limited (“BirdDog Technology”) and BirdDog Australia Pty Ltd
3 (“BirdDog Australia”) (collectively, “BirdDog”) complain against Defendants 2082
4 Technology, LLC dba Bolin Technology (“Bolin LLC”), Bolin Technology Co., Ltd.
5 (“Bolin Limited”) (collectively, the “Bolin Defendants”), Mr. Hoi “Kyle” Lo (“Mr.
6 Lo”), Ms. Jennifer Lee (“Ms. Lee”) and DOES 3-25 (collectively, “Defendants”) as 7 follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

9 1. This case seeks to bring an end to a corporate scheme implicating brazen 10 theft on an international scale.

11 2. Based in Australia, BirdDog is an internationally-renowned vendor of 12 streaming video technology. BirdDog is known by clients the world over for its 13 ability to develop and manufacture high quality hardware and software solutions that 14 increase the quality, speed and flexibility of video that can be delivered over existing 15 network infrastructure. Customers whose businesses and organizations depend on 16 the immediate and reliable distribution of high-quality video content have come to 17 know and trust BirdDog for its expertise in that regard, specifically relying on 18 BirdDog for its ability to timely deliver precision equipment - altogether amounting 19 to economic relationships annually worth many millions of dollars.

20 3. Enter the Bolin Defendants. Each controlled by Chief Executive Officer 21 Mr. Lo and managed by Chief Operating Officer Ms. Lee from their home in Arcadia, 22 California, Bolin Limited is the manufacturing arm of Bolin LLC, together holding 23 themselves out to the public and doing business as “Bolin Technology.” Some years
24 ago, the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, and Ms. Lee realized that the Bolin Defendants 25 needed to expand their operations in order to make more money and compete in the 26 marketplace, and quickly so. It was around the same time that the Bolin Defendants, 27 Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 became aware of BirdDog’s runaway success in the 28 video distribution marketplace and sought then to grab a piece for themselves.

1 4. And it was thus that, working initially and primarily through Mr. Lo and 2 then also through Ms. Lee, the Bolin Defendants first encountered BirdDog at an 3 industry trade show in Nevada. Subsequently, while working from their home in 4 Arcadia and the Bolin Defendants' offices in Southern California, Mr. Lo and Ms.
5 Lee approached BirdDog executives and gained their trust, developing detailed 6 knowledge of BirdDog's operations and making numerous oral and written 7 representations about the Bolin Defendants' capability to fulfill BirdDog's camera 8 manufacturing needs. The Bolin Defendants, Ms. Lee and Mr. Lo repeatedly and 9 specifically represented that Bolin LLC controlled Bolin Limited - the Bolin 10 Defendants' manufacturing arm - and that, together, the Bolin Defendants were an 11 original equipment manufacturer ("OEM") specialist that had the present intent and 12 capability to manufacture cameras for BirdDog pursuant to BirdDog's precise 13 specifications. Relying on the truth of those representations, BirdDog agreed to 14 engage Bolin LLC and its manufacturing arm Bolin Limited, signed the Bolin 15 Defendants to a comprehensive NDA, and started an economic relationship that 16 would eventually result in BirdDog sharing sensitive confidential information and 17 trade secrets with the Bolin Defendants and the Bolin Defendants becoming 18 BirdDog's primary supplier of camera products.

19 5. But in 2023, it became clear that a mere legal and lawful business 20 supplier relationship was not enough for the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo or Ms. Lee.
21 Indeed, the reality was and is that neither the Bolin Defendants, nor Mr. Lo, nor Ms.
22 Lee ever had the present intent or the capability to manufacture cameras for BirdDog 23 pursuant to BirdDog's specifications. Nor were the Bolin Defendants content with 24 becoming BirdDog's primary supplier of camera products. Instead, or so it has 25 ultimately become clear, the Bolin Defendants employed a deliberate and unlawful 26 strategy of lulling BirdDog into a false sense of security in order to surreptitiously 27 and scandalously procure from BirdDog highly valuable and sensitive trade secrets 28 and confidential information to develop competing products, all the while concealing

1 their real and true intent: become BirdDog. In other words, the Bolin Defendants 2 devised a plan to convince BirdDog to entrust them with its funds and highly 3 confidential information, hold and brazenly misuse and misappropriate those funds
4 and highly sensitive information to apply pressure on BirdDog, create competing 5 cameras and steal BirdDog’s clients and economic relationships for themselves.

6 6. Seeking to overcome any corporate control obstacles to the success of 7 this scheme, the Bolin Defendants and Mr. Lo first objected to BirdDog’s decision 8 to become a public company. Then, the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee 9 unsuccessfully tried to convince BirdDog to agree to being acquired by the Bolin 10 Defendants. Ultimately, the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee resorted to 11 brazen and outright theft: in 2023, as Defendants feigned insult at imagined slights, 12 Defendants reacted to their inability to seize control of BirdDog by (1) placing a 13 “hard sharp stop” on production of all BirdDog products while unlawfully holding 14 and refusing to return more than $3 million in BirdDog funds paid in order to secure 15 production pursuant to the parties’ agreements and the Bolin Defendants’ 16 obligations; and (2) implementing their plan to unlawfully utilize BirdDog’s 17 confidential information and trade secrets in the development and introduction of 18 competing products. Defendants’ apparent and unlawful hope was that their brazen 19 thefts and refusal to deliver BirdDog cameras would damage BirdDog’s reputation 20 by causing BirdDog’s global customer base to question BirdDog’s ability to fulfill 21 their contracts, cease doing business with BirdDog, and – hopefully, in their minds – 22 agree to do business with Defendants.

23 7. None of what Defendants have done is proper or lawful. Because the 24 Bolin Defendants’ theft of BirdDog funds and misappropriation of its most highly 25 valuable information continues unabated, this action has been necessitated to restore 26 BirdDog’s rights, secure its most sensitive corporate information and secure the 27 immediate repayment of its money.

28

PARTIES

8. BirdDog Technology is a corporate, publicly listed entity organized and existing under the laws of Australia with its principal place of business in Australia.

9. BirdDog Australia is a corporate entity organized and existing under the laws of Australia with its principal place of business in Australia. BirdDog Technology is the sole corporate parent of BirdDog Australia.

10. Bolin LLC is a California limited liability company with its principal place of business in Brea, California. BirdDog is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that at all relevant times, Bolin LLC's members were and remain citizens of California and include Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee. Selling products to the public using the .url www.bolintechnology.com, www.bolin-av.com and through Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest and X, Bolin LLC holds itself out to customers and the public as "Bolin Technology."

11. Bolin Limited is a company organized under the laws of the People's Republic of China, with its principal places of business in Shenzhen, China and Los Angeles County, California, with an "international headquarters" in Brea, California. Also selling products to the public using the .url www.bolintechology.com, www.bolin-av.com and through Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest and X, Bolin Limited functions as the manufacturing arm of Bolin LLC and represents itself as a Bolin LLC and "Bolin Technology" company. Upon the filing of the initial complaint in the action, BirdDog, being ignorant of the nature, extent and scope of Bolin Limited's involvement and complicity in the conduct alleged therein, having designated Bolin Limited in the complaint as DOE 1 and having discovered its involvement and complicity, amended its Complaint by substituting Bolin Limited for the fictitious DOE name DOE 1.

12. Mr. Lo is an individual who resides, and who at all relevant times resided, in the County of Los Angeles, California. Mr. Lo is the co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of Bolin LLC and Bolin Limited. Mr. Lo controls a majority

1 interest in Bolin LLC and Bolin Limited through which he is primarily responsible 2 for directing the operations of both companies.

3 13. Bolin Limited was at all relevant times the alter ego or agent of Bolin
4 LLC and Mr. Lo, because a unity of interest and ownership existed between Bolin 5 Limited, Bolin LLC and Mr. Lo and adherence to the fiction of separate corporate 6 existence would promote injustice under the circumstances. The Bolin Defendants 7 hold themselves out as a single, unified enterprise, advertised as a manufacturer and 8 distributor of camera products in the United States. At all relevant times, Bolin 9 Limited existed as mere conduits or shell corporations for the interests and 10 manipulations of Bolin LLC, Mr. Lo and of DOES 3-25. The Bolin Defendants' 11 collective efforts to manufacture and distribute camera products allow Mr. Lo to 12 achieve his personal scheme of developing and manufacturing high-performance 13 industrial cameras. The Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and DOES 3-25 controlled and 14 dominated their constituent entities and made crucial decisions about the conduct 15 alleged herein. The Bolin Defendants disregarded the formal distinctions between 16 their constituent entities, treating them as one and the same. For example, Bolin 17 Limited holds itself out to the public as Bolin Technology, which is a 2082
18 Technology LLC Company, and Mr. Lo signs legal documents, speaks, makes 19 representations and sends correspondence on behalf of both companies jointly and at 20 the same time. The Bolin Defendants share business addresses in the County of Los 21 Angeles, California and in Shenzhen, China. The assets of the Bolin Defendants 22 were and are comingled in their business. The Bolin Defendants share employees 23 and executives, as well as attorneys. The Bolin Defendants were and are 24 undercapitalized and are potentially incapable of satisfying a judgment should 25 BirdDog prevail in this action. And because each of the Bolin Defendants have 26 benefitted from the conduct alleged herein, it would be unjust if either were to escape 27 liability for obligations associated with those benefits.

28 14. Ms. Lee is an individual who resides, and who at all relevant times

1 resided, in the County of Los Angeles, California. Ms. Lee is the Chief Operations 2 Officer of Bolin LLC and Bolin Limited. Upon the filing of the initial complaint in 3 the action, BirdDog, being ignorant of the nature, extent and scope of Ms. Lee's 4 involvement and complicity in the conduct alleged therein, having designated Ms.
5 Lee in the complaint as DOE 2 and having discovered her involvement and 6 complicity, amended its complaint by substituting Ms. Lee for the fictitious Doe 7 name DOE 2.

8 15. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, 9 or otherwise, of the defendants named herein as DOES 3-25, inclusive, are unknown
10 to BirdDog, who therefore sues those defendants by such fictitious names. BirdDog 11 is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that each of the defendants sued 12 herein as DOES 3-25, inclusive are and were the directors, officers, agents, 13 employees, parents or subsidiaries of the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, and Ms. Lee are 14 legally responsible for the events and occurrences herein referred to and proximately 15 caused injuries and damages to BirdDog as herein alleged. BirdDog will seek to 16 amend its complaint to allege the true names and capacities of such defendants when 17 ascertained.

18 16. At all relevant times, each of the Defendants was acting as an agent, 19 alter ego, servant, employee, joint tortfeasor or representative of all other Defendants, 20 and, in so doing the things alleged in this Complaint, was acting within the course 21 and scope of their agency, service, employment, or joint venture or joint tortfeasor 22 arrangement.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 17. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over this matter 25 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, in that this action arises under the laws of the United 26 States including the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1836 and thus raises 27 questions of federal law.

28 18. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state law issues raised

1 herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because these issues are so related to the claims
2 in this action within this Court's original jurisdiction that they form part of the same 3 case or controversy.

4 19. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Bolin LLC because 5 it is a California LLC whose members are citizens and residents of the State of 6 California, with its principal place of business in the Central District of California.

7 20. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Bolin Limited 8 because it is the manufacturing arm of Bolin LLC and is a Bolin LLC company, 9 controlled by Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee; because Bolin Limited is the alter ego of Bolin 10 LLC and of Mr. Lo and is a joint tortfeasor with each and Ms. Lee; because it shares 11 offices and regularly transacts business in the County of Los Angeles and in the 12 Central District of California; and because the claims against Bolin Limited in this 13 action arise out of Bolin Limited's transacting of business in the County of Los 14 Angeles and in the Central District of California.

15 21. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Mr. Lo because, at 16 all relevant times, Mr. Lo was and currently remains a resident of the County of Los 17 Angeles and in the Central District of California and otherwise committed tortious 18 acts in and regularly transacted business in the County of Los Angeles and in the 19 Central District of California.

20 22. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Ms. Lee because, 21 at all relevant times, Ms. Lee was and currently remains a resident of the County of 22 Los Angeles and in the Central District of California and otherwise committed 23 tortious acts in and regularly transacted business in the County of Los Angeles and 24 in the Central District of California.

25 23. Venue is proper in the Central District of California under 28 U.S.C. § 26 1391(a) in that one or more defendants reside in this judicial district. Venue is also 27 proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) in that this is the judicial district in which a 28 substantial part of the acts and omissions giving rise to these claims occurred.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

A. BirdDog's Business and Valuable Customer Relationships

3 24. In today's live-streamed world, what was once the province of broadcast 4 television has now become a broadly available, increasingly democratized 5 commodity. Advances in internet capacity, combined with recent events like the 6 COVID-19 pandemic, have resulted in a veritable explosion of global demand for 7 precision streaming video technology, including pan, tilt and zoom ("PTZ") robotic 8 video cameras that allow an operator to control the camera remotely.

9 25. On a worldwide basis, numerous organizations ranging from churches, 10 to political parties, to educational institutions, to sports, to governments and 11 corporations have all come to depend on the availability of streaming video 12 technology in order to support their business and other activities.

13 26. BirdDog – a leading Australian technology company – has been well-14 placed to capitalize on those market forces. For years, BirdDog has invested time 15 and resources in developing its reputation as a market-leading provider of HD and 16 4K hardware and software solutions that increase the quality, speed and flexibility of 17 video that can be delivered over existing network infrastructure. Through its camera
18 portfolio, BirdDog has established itself as one of the primary global leaders in PTZ 19 technology, with customer relationships with global businesses from the broadcast 20 industry, to major league sports, to leaders in social media and government bodies 21 amounting to millions of dollars in revenue every year. Representative examples of 22 BirdDog’s industry-leading PTZ cameras are below.

1 27. Safeguarding the integrity of its products and protecting its intellectual 2 property and customer relationships in the global marketplace require BirdDog to 3 enforce its suppliers' compliance with precise manufacturing requirements, the 4 timeliness, quality and integrity of which are critical to maintaining BirdDog's ability 5 to conduct its business.

6 B. BirdDog's Valuable Confidential Information and Trade Secrets

7 28. BirdDog's status as one of Australia's and the world's foremost 8 purveyors of PTZ and other streaming video technology has in no small part been 9 secured by BirdDog's significant investment in the development of valuable, 10 proprietary, and competitively sensitive technology and business information, all of 11 which is critical to fulfilling BirdDog's business objectives in the global camera
12 marketplace and none of which BirdDog shares with third parties - let alone 13 competitors.

14 29. BirdDog's confidential and proprietary information, including its trade 15 secrets, are all highly specialized and extremely valuable. For example, and over a 16 period spanning years, BirdDog has invested substantial resources, including time, 17 money and effort, in the development of highly technical trade secrets that are core 18 to its business, including, inter alia, (1) a proprietary hardware-based application
19 allowing for implementation of high-bandwidth Network Device Interface (NDI) 20 capabilities facilitating networked video systems to identify and communicate with 21 each other and encode, transmit and receive multiple streams of broadcast-quality, 22 low-latency video and audio in real time; (2) a customized and proprietary solution 23 allowing for the distribution of broadcast-quality video which is multiple factors 24 more powerful and more flexible than anything commonly available to competitors 25 or to the public and allows implementation across camera and converter devices; (3) 26 a unified control system incorporating a proprietary graphic interface and graphical 27 user interface; (4) a proprietary application programming interface; and (5) cloud 28 enabled remote control and orchestration of BirdDog camera products (the 1 “Technical Trade Secrets”).

2 30. Equally valuable and specialized are other trade secrets related to 3 BirdDog’s business and operations. Over decades in the industry, BirdDog has 4 developed highly sensitive and extremely specialized and valuable trade secrets that 5 together form the cornerstone of BirdDog’s economic relationships, including, inter 6 alia, proprietary, specialized and sensitive (1) product feature sets; (2) customer and 7 industry-specific performance requirements; (3) customer and industry-specific 8 product expectations; (4) customer and industry-specific product fit; (5) customer 9 and industry-specific pricing information; (6) go-to-market strategies and 10 experience; and (7) customer and industry-specific distribution methodologies (the 11 “Economic Trade Secrets”) (collectively, the “Technical Trade Secrets” and the 12 “Economic Trade Secrets” are referred to as the “BirdDog Trade Secrets”).

13 31. BirdDog takes seriously the protection of its confidential and 14 proprietary information, including the BirdDog Trade Secrets, precisely because it is 15 so valuable. BirdDog takes diligent and reasonable steps to protect its confidential 16 and proprietary information, including the BirdDog Trade Secrets, from disclosure 17 or use by third parties.

18 32. BirdDog protects its confidential and proprietary information (including 19 the BirdDog Trade Secrets) through measures that include, inter alia, limitations on 20 the dissemination of information internally and to third parties and on a need-to-know 21 basis, requiring consultation with senior BirdDog executives when contemplating the 22 disclosure of BirdDog information, the use of confidentiality and nondisclosure 23 agreements, hierarchical protection of sensitive information and password-protected 24 access to its electronic information.

25 33. All of the BirdDog Trade Secrets are competitively sensitive and core 26 to BirdDog’s business.

27
28

C. The Bolin Defendants Gain BirdDog's Trust and Becomes BirdDog's Primary Camera Supplier

3 34. With roots stretching as far back as 2002, Bolin LLC, working together 4 with its manufacturing arm Bolin Limited, is a California-based manufacturer and 5 distributor of video cameras. The Bolin Defendants, too, saw advantages in the 6 growing market for PTZ and other video streaming technology. But in part because 7 they lacked their own reputation for delivering high-quality product in the 8 marketplace, the Bolin Defendants devoted much of their business to manufacturing 9 cameras for others. It was in this context that they initially approached BirdDog to 10 gain BirdDog's trust, secured favored status as BirdDog's primary supplier of camera 11 equipment, and thus obtained a share of BirdDog's commercial success.

12 35. In or about April 2017, Mr. Lo—appearing and working on behalf of 13 the Bolin Defendants—approached BirdDog executives at a trade show in Las Vegas.
14 His message: the Bolin Defendants were an OEM supplier that had “over 15 years of 15 experience” delivering “the latest in high definition imaging, precision engineered 16 controls and performance design” to “all levels of relationships from OEM/ODM, 17 distribution, reseller, government and commercial accounts,” and that Mr. Lo and the 18 Bolin Defendants had the present intent and the capability to fulfill BirdDog’s precise 19 manufacturing needs.

20 36. In subsequent conversations with BirdDog executives, Mr. Lo and Ms.
21 Lee made similar representations to BirdDog executives from their home in Arcadia, 22 California and from the Bolin Defendants' then-existing corporate offices in the City 23 of Industry, California. Their collective message continued to be that working with 24 the Bolin Defendants would enable BirdDog to use their expertise of high definition 25 imaging, precision engineered controls and performance design to manufacture 26 BirdDog cameras. For its part, BirdDog discussed with and informed Mr. Lo, Ms.
27 Lee, and the Bolin Defendants about its business, including its developing and 28 evolving camera manufacturing needs, its customers and the importance of 1 compliance with precise manufacturing and delivery requirements to its business.

2 37. Still, BirdDog executives were cautious. After all, agreeing to work
3 with Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and the Bolin Defendants to enable the manufacture of BirdDog 4 cameras would result in a significant risk of the disclosure of confidential information
5 and the BirdDog Trade Secrets. Accordingly, on September 4, 2017, BirdDog 6 obtained a comprehensive Non Disclosure Agreement, signed by Bolin Limited on 7 behalf of the Bolin Defendants and binding both Ms. Lo and Ms. Lee as their 8 executives, acknowledging the “valuable and proprietary information” of BirdDog, 9 including the BirdDog Trade Secrets, and requiring the Bolin Defendants to 10 “maintain the confidential nature of,” “not, without the prior consent of 11 BirdDog...disclose,” and “not use or disclose or reproduce...for any purpose” other 12 than specifically approved by BirdDog (the “NDA”):

13 “Any and all information of a confidential nature which is 14 obtained by [the Bolin Defendants] in relation to BirdDog 15 in connection with this agreement including without 16 limitation any strategies, ideas, concepts, methods,
17 methodologies, processes, systems, know how, trade 18 secrets, intellectual property, budgets, marketing or 19 business plans, projections, diagrams, flow charts, 20 computer software and programs, research data,
21 transaction data, sales information, product information, 22 client lists, technical information, business or financial information, lists and information relating to customers and clients, employee information, financier information or supplier information, or any dealings, transactions, affairs or any other information in any form.”

23 The NDA is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

24 38. BirdDog trusted the good faith of Mr. Lo’s, Ms. Lee’s and the Bolin 25 Defendants’ representations. As a result, BirdDog entered into a relationship with 26 the Bolin Defendants that would eventually make the Bolin Defendants BirdDog’s 27 principal camera manufacturer.

28 39. Initially, the Bolin Defendants met BirdDog’s manufacturing

1 requirements, maintained the façade of supposed efforts at maintaining a business
2 relationship, and induced BirdDog on repeated occasions to disclose to Mr. Lo, Ms.
3 Lee and the Bolin Defendants sensitive, confidential and proprietary information, 4 including the BirdDog Trade Secrets, intended to facilitate the Bolin Defendants' 5 compliance with those requirements.

6 D. The Bolin Defendants Negotiate Agreements and Surreptitiously Obtain BirdDog's Trade Secrets In California

7 40. On multiple occasions between 2019 and 2022, the Bolin Defendants, 8 Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee induced BirdDog executives to travel to meet them at their 9 headquarters in Southern California for purposes of meeting them and negotiating 10 various agreements with the Bolin Defendants, all the while concealing their desire 11 to use these meetings for the purpose of obtaining access to BirdDog's confidential
12 and proprietary information, including the BirdDog Trade Secrets. Since the filing 13 of the complaint, Mr. Lo has testified under oath in this action that all 14 communications with BirdDog in California related to the claims at issue in this case, 15 including without limitation his solicitation and receipt of BirdDog funds and 16 information, took place in his role as Chief Executive Officer of Bolin Limited.

17 41. On May 9, 12 and 13, 2019, BirdDog Chief Executive Dan Miall ("Mr.
18 Miall") met Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee at their residence in Arcadia, California (on May 9) 19 and at the offices of the Bolin Defendants in Brea California (on May 12 and 13).
20 During these meetings, Mr. Lo, acting in his individual capacity and as Chief 21 Executive Officer of the Bolin Defendants, and Ms. Lee, acting in her individual 22 capacity and as the Chief Operating Officer of the Bolin Defendants, conducted 23 negotiations for agreements with and otherwise induced Mr. Miall to provide them 24 and the Bolin Defendants with BirdDog's competitively sensitive confidential and 25 proprietary information relating to BirdDog's product portfolio and product 26 development, including some BirdDog Trade Secrets.

27 42. In October 2019, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee met Mr. Miall at a restaurant in 28

1 Los Angeles, California. Likewise during this dinner, Mr. Lo, acting as Chief 2 Executive Officer of the Bolin Defendants, and Ms. Lee, acting as the Chief
3 Operating Officer of the Bolin Defendants, conducted negotiations for agreements
4 with and otherwise induced Mr. Miall to provide them and the Bolin Defendants with 5 BirdDog's competitively sensitive confidential and proprietary information relating 6 to BirdDog's product portfolio and product development, including some BirdDog
7 Trade Secrets.

8 43. All of this information was disclosed pursuant to what would ultimately 9 prove to be the false assurance of the Bolin Defendants of compliance with the 10 parties' comprehensive nondisclosure agreement.

11 E. The Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee Obtain Millions of 12 Dollars In BirdDog's Money Through Agreements Ultimately 13 Repudiated

14 44. Beginning in or about 2023, it became clear that Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and 15 the Bolin Defendants began to work together to parlay BirdDog's trust and 16 confidence into a wrongful scheme to become BirdDog.

17 45. Over the immediately preceding years, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and the Bolin 18 Defendants worked together from their California base to induce BirdDog to enter 19 into a related series of six transactions that the Bolin Defendants had no intention of 20 performing as agreed, all while lulling BirdDog into a false sense of security in the 21 good faith of their communications relating to what had become a faux business 22 relationship so that they could extract, use and misappropriate confidential and 23 proprietary information and the BirdDog Trade Secrets in the development and 24 marketing of competing products. To date, BirdDog has paid millions of dollars to 25 Bolin and Mr. Lo with respect to each of these six related transactions, with Bolin 26 and Mr. Lo refusing to produce and yet holding on to those funds in an effort to obtain 27 control of BirdDog and take over its customer relationships - causing BirdDog to lose even more in missed sales and lost profits.

28 46. The June 2021 Purchase Agreement. On June 30, 2021, BirdDog and

1 the Bolin Defendants finalized an enforceable oral and written contract whereby the 12 47. The September 2021 Purchase Agreement. On September 23, 2021, 13 BirdDog and the Bolin Defendants finalized an oral and written contract whereby the 14 Bolin Defendants agreed to promptly produce and timely deliver 250 units of

2 [REDACTED] to secure the Bolin Defendants' timely production and delivery of 3 these cameras. Attached hereto as Exhibit C are true and correct copies of the written 4 portions of the September 2021 Purchase Agreement.

5 48. In the midst of finalizing these agreements, the Bolin Defendants, Mr.
6 Lo and Ms. Lee continued to use their California headquarters for contract
7 negotiation with BirdDog and to surreptitiously obtain still more BirdDog Trade 8 Secrets and confidential information. On February 25, 2022, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee 9 invited Mr. Miall for dinner to their house in Arcadia, California, followed by a 10 February 26, 2022 meeting with Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee at the Bolin Defendants' Brea, 11 California office. This dinner and meeting also included comprehensive discussions 12 about BirdDog product plans and the Bolin Defendants' manufacturing capabilities, 13 including the June 2021 Purchase Agreement and the September 2021 Purchase 14 Agreement, as well as negotiations for what would become the August 2022 Purchase 15 Agreement and the October 2022 Purchase Agreement. At the time, Mr. Lo, acting
16 as Chief Executive Officer of the Bolin Defendants, and Ms. Lee, acting as the Chief
17 Operating Officer of the Bolin Defendants, conducted negotiations for agreements
18 with and otherwise induced Mr. Miall to provide them and the Bolin Defendants with 19 BirdDog's competitively sensitive confidential and proprietary information relating
20 to BirdDog's product portfolio and product development, including some BirdDog
21 Trade Secrets.

22 49. The August 2022 Purchase Agreement. On August 5, 2022, BirdDog
23 and the Bolin Defendants finalized an enforceable oral and written contract whereby 24 the Bolin Defendants agreed to promptly produce and timely deliver 3,000 units of 25 BirdDog's Black P240 cameras at a price of [REDACTED] and 1,000 units of 26 BirdDog's White P240 cameras at a price of [REDACTED] in exchange for 27 BirdDog's [REDACTED] to be utilized
28 for purposes exclusively related to the timely production and delivery under the

1 agreement (the “August 2022 Purchase Agreement”). As required by the oral terms
2 of the agreement, and in reliance on the Bolin Defendants’ and Mr. Lo’s
3 representations, BirdDog paid the Bolin Defendants [REDACTED]
4 [REDACTED]—to secure the Bolin Defendants’ timely production and delivery of 5 these cameras. Attached hereto as Exhibit D are true and correct copies of the written 6 portions of the August 2022 Purchase Agreement.

7 50. The October 2022 Purchase Agreement. On October 21, 2022,
8 BirdDog and the Bolin Defendants finalized an enforceable oral and written contract
9 whereby the Bolin Defendants agreed to promptly produce and timely deliver 200 10 units of BirdDog’s White P120 cameras at a price of [REDACTED] in exchange for 11 BirdDog’s [REDACTED] to be utilized
12 for purposes exclusively related to the timely production and delivery under the 13 agreement (the “October 2022 Purchase Agreement”). As required by the oral terms
14 of the agreement, and in reliance on the Bolin Defendants’ and Mr. Lo’s
15 representations, BirdDog paid the Bolin Defendants [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED] to secure the Bolin Defendants’ timely production and delivery of these 17 cameras. Attached hereto as Exhibit E are true and correct copies of the written 18 portions of the October 2022 Purchase Agreement.

19 51. The Bolin Defendants’, Mr. Lo, and Ms. Lee’s efforts to utilize their 20 California headquarters to conduct negotiations and improperly obtain access to 21 BirdDog Trade Secrets and confidential information continued unabated. On 22 November 12, 2022, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee invited Mr. Miall for lunch at Meizhou 23 Dongpo restaurant in Arcadia, followed by a meeting with Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee at the 24 Bolin Defendants’ Brea, California office. This lunch and meeting also included 25 comprehensive discussions about BirdDog’s product plans and the Bolin Defendants’ 26 manufacturing capabilities, including the June 2021 Purchase Agreement and the 27 September 2021 Purchase Agreement, August 2022 and October 2022 Purchase
28 Agreements, as well as negotiations for what would become the March 2023

1 Purchase Agreement and May 2023 Purchase Agreement. At the time, Mr. Lo, acting
2 as Chief Executive Officer of the Bolin Defendants, and Ms. Lee, acting as the Chief
3 Operating Officer of the Bolin Defendants, conducted negotiations for agreements
4 with and otherwise induced Mr. Miall to provide them and the Bolin Defendants with 5 BirdDog's competitively sensitive confidential and proprietary information relating
6 to BirdDog's product portfolio and product development, including some BirdDog
7 Trade Secrets.

8 52. The March 2023 Purchase Agreement. On March 31, 2023, BirdDog
9 and the Bolin Defendants finalized an enforceable oral and written contract whereby
10 the Bolin Defendants agreed to promptly produce and timely deliver 750 units of 11 BirdDog's Ocean White U120 cameras at a price of [REDACTED] 250 units of 12 BirdDog's White U120 cameras at a price of [REDACTED] and 1,000 units of 13 BirdDog's Black X120 cameras at a price of [REDACTED] (the "March 2023 14 Purchase Agreement"). As required by the oral terms of the agreement, and in 15 reliance on the Bolin Defendants' and Mr. Lo's representations, on March 31, 2023, 16 BirdDog paid the Bolin Defendants [REDACTED]
17 to secure the Bolin Defendants' timely production and delivery of these cameras.
18 Attached hereto as Exhibit F are true and correct copies of the written portions of 19 the March 2023 Purchase Agreement.

20 53. The May 2023 Purchase Agreement. On May 17, 2023, BirdDog and 21 the Bolin Defendants finalized an enforceable oral and written contract whereby the 22 Bolin Defendants agreed to promptly produce and timely deliver 1,000 units of 23 BirdDog's Black X120 cameras at a price of [REDACTED] in exchange for BirdDog's 24 [REDACTED] to be utilized for 25 purposes exclusively related to the timely production and delivery under the 26 agreement (the "May 2023 Purchase Agreement"). As required by the oral terms of 27 this agreement, and in reliance on the Bolin Defendants' and Mr. Lo's 28 representations, on June 2, 2023, BirdDog paid the Bolin Defendants [REDACTED]

1 [REDACTED] to secure the Bolin Defendants' timely production and 2 delivery of these cameras. Attached hereto as Exhibit G are true and correct copies 3 of the written portions of the May 2023 Purchase Agreement.

4 F. Frustrated By Their Inability to Obtain Control of BirdDog, Mr.
5 Lo Causes the Bolin Defendants to Pressure BirdDog By 6 Converting BirdDog Funds and Repudiating Their Obligations,
While Misappropriating BirdDog's Confidential Information and Trade Secrets For Competing Products

7 54. Despite the Bolin Defendants' repeated representations, they failed to 8 timely perform their obligations under these six transactions. Worse, by the summer 9 of 2023, it would become clear that Mr. Lo and the Bolin Defendants' true and 10 undisclosed intent was to seize control of BirdDog and that, in the process of 11 pumping BirdDog for confidential information, market know-how and trade secrets, 12 they never had any intent of complying with their obligations under these related 13 transactions - all of which they would ultimately repudiate.

14 55. In or about October 2021, BirdDog advised the Bolin Defendants of its 15 forthcoming listing as a publicly traded company on the Australian Stock Exchange.
16 In BirdDog's eyes, this was a standard notification to provide to its principal camera 17 supplier: BirdDog had anticipated that Mr. Lo and the Bolin Defendants would be 18 pleased with the success of one of their principal customers. Surprisingly (to 19 BirdDog), this was not the case. Mr. Lo and the Bolin Defendants were displeased 20 by this development. The Bolin Defendants and Mr. Lo objected when BirdDog's 21 public offering was finalized in December 2021, argued (without any basis) that they 22 should have been provided notice more than six months before, and expressed their 23 preference that BirdDog "co-list" with the Bolin Defendants.

24 56. Consistent with its obligations, BirdDog declined the Bolin Defendants' 25 2021 entreaties, though still had no reason to think that the Bolin Defendants had any 26 intent of doing anything untoward with these transactions or its deposits.

27 57. By the summer of 2023, that all changed: it became increasingly and 28 disturbingly clear that the Bolin Defendants had decided to employ more aggressive

1 measures to obtain total control of BirdDog.

2 58. Specifically, on July 4, 2023, Mr. Lo demanded an immediate meeting
3 in Australia with BirdDog executives. That meeting took place in Melbourne, 4 Australia on July 12, 2023. During that meeting, Mr. Lo, the Bolin Defendants and 5 others communicated to BirdDog - falsely - that BirdDog was “failing,” “in trouble” 6 and in “financial distress.” Mr. Lo’s and the Bolin Defendants’ “solution” to these 7 problems was a hostile Bolin takeover - or, put differently, for the Bolin Defendants
8 to become BirdDog. To formalize this improper demand, Mr. Lo presented “options” 9 to BirdDog that included (1) a merger; (2) a full takeover by the Bolin Defendants of 10 BirdDog’s camera business; (3) stopping manufacture of BirdDog’s cameras; or (4) 11 vague threats of competition while manufacturing BirdDog’s cameras.

12 59. BirdDog and its executives were stunned: not only did the Bolin 13 Defendants and their executives have no apparent plan for any of the “options” they 14 presented, but at the moment of the July 12, 2023 meeting, the Bolin Defendants had 15 not delivered 9,670 of the cameras that BirdDog had ordered pursuant to the 16 transactions listed above and for which its customers were waiting and the Bolin
17 Defendants were holding $3,060,883.10 of BirdDog’s funds. Still, BirdDog refused 18 the Bolin Defendants’ demands.

19 60. The nature and direction of Mr. Lo’s and the Bolin Defendants’ scheme 20 to use BirdDog’s funds and repudiation of the Bolin Defendants’ obligations to 21 squeeze BirdDog into submitting to the Bolin Defendants’ demands would 22 unfortunately become clearer. On July 15, 2023, Mr. Lo again met with BirdDog
23 executives in Melbourne. He reiterated the Bolin Defendants’ “options” for BirdDog 24 - now, additionally, demanding that he would be CEO of BirdDog - communicated 25 his dim view of BirdDog’s executives (including that he did not like, value or respect 26 BirdDog’s chairman) and refused to consider any alternatives, including that 27 BirdDog absorb the Bolin Defendants. That same day, Mr. Lo advised BirdDog’s 28 chief executive via WeChat that he had 24 hours to agree to the Bolin Defendants’

1 demands. When BirdDog did not immediately accede, Mr. Lo advised that “all 2 options” were “off the table.”

3 61. In September 2023, BirdDog tried one more time to ensure the Bolin 4 Defendants’ compliance with their obligations - asking again for delivery of the 5 products that it had ordered in accordance with the terms of the six transactions or 6 for a refund of the outstanding prepayments. The Bolin Defendants refused, with 7 Mr. Lo admitting that the Bolin Defendants were repudiating their obligations under 8 these transactions and that - apparently until BirdDog acceded to the Bolin 9 Defendants’ demands and permitted Mr. Lo to take over the company - there would 10 be a “hard sharp stop” on all BirdDog production.

11 62. Mr. Lo’s “hard sharp stop” has not been reversed. To the contrary: the 12 Bolin Defendants repeatedly confirmed that they have repudiated their obligations 13 under the parties’ arrangement by confirming now that they will not produce or 14 deliver a single additional camera for BirdDog according to the terms of the parties’
15 existing arrangements, and that they will also refuse to return any of BirdDog’s 16 money. This repudiation and other plainly unlawful conduct by the Bolin Defendants 17 were most recently confirmed by the Bolin Defendants on January 24, 2024, when a 18 senior executive of the Bolin Defendants who reports to Mr. Lo confirmed to 19 BirdDog that the Bolin Defendants “consider each of the Contracts to be avoided,” 20 that the relationship between Bolin and BirdDog was “avoided and terminated,” and 21 that Defendants’ “obligations...[were] discharged” – even as the Bolin Defendants, 22 Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee continued to hold BirdDog’s money and unlawfully 23 misappropriate BirdDog’s confidential information and trade secrets.

24 63. It is thus that Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee’s and the Bolin Defendants’ unlawful 25 plan has come to fruition. Perhaps worse, it has also become clear that the Bolin
26 Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee are formalizing their scheme to become BirdDog 27 by misappropriating BirdDog’s confidential and proprietary information to produce 28 and distribute competing camera products.

1 64. During the February 26, 2022 meeting at the Bolin Defendants' Brea, 2 California office, Mr. Miall identified a Bolin-branded converter product that 3 appeared to incorporate similar technology and form-factor to existing BirdDog
4 Products, including some of the BirdDog Technical Trade Secrets. When asked 5 about the converter device by Mr. Miall, Mr. Lo denied that the camera was a Bolin
6 converter device incorporating this technology and asserted that Mr. Miall had made 7 a mistake and incorrect assumption and misinterpretation. These statements were 8 lies.

9 65. In January 2023, the Bolin Defendants again delivered to BirdDog a 10 Bolin-branded camera incorporating similar technology to BirdDog proprietary 11 technology, including some of the BirdDog Technical Trade Secrets. Again, when 12 asked about this camera, Mr. Lo denied any culpability: claiming that the associated 13 technology evident in the camera "was totally a mistake made by an irrelevant 14 outside-engineer." This, too, was a lie.

15 66. And in January 2024, during the pendency of this lawsuit and in advance
16 of an industry trade show scheduled for Barcelona, the Bolin Defendants have begun 17 to add staging pages to their website advertising the imminent sale of cameras, using 18 BirdDog Economic Trade Secrets, that unlawfully incorporate BirdDog Technical 19 Trade Secrets.

20 67. The Bolin Defendants' unlawful scheme, which is interfering 21 significantly with BirdDog's relationships with its customers, is thus coming to a 22 head: BirdDog has been unable to fulfill orders and ship products because of the 23 Bolin Defendants' actions.

24 68. For example, after the Bolin Defendants repudiated the six agreements 25 and failed to deliver the products as promised thereunder, BirdDog had back orders 26 for the X120 camera in November 2023 with a total value of approximately 27 $734,359.15 that it was unable to fulfill.

28 69. Additionally, BirdDog has calculated that it has suffered a loss totaling

1 over $1.25 million in revenue opportunities in Europe, the Middle East, and Africa
2 for the current quarter ending on March 31, 2024 caused by Bolin Defendants failure
3 to produce and timely deliver BirdDog cameras.

4 70. Several BirdDog customers have taken to the internet to discuss their 5 disappointment after the BirdDog cameras they ordered never arrived.¹ Of course, 6 these customers' disappointment was a direct result of the Bolin Defendants' failure
7 to perform on their contractual obligations. Ultimately, many BirdDog customers 8 who were awaiting BirdDog's new products have lost trust in BirdDog's products 9 altogether. For example:

11 Makes me glad I cancelled my order for birddog X120 and went with the Bolin 220. Saved $200 a camera too. I'm a 12 very happy user.

17 This is very worrisome. The most of Birddog product palette relies on Bolin. I don't think they can replace this 18 vendor. The Birddog NDI hardware and software is deeply integrated into the Bolin cameras. This is years of work.
19 If they can't work it out this could be the end of Birddog.
20

21 71. Moreover, BirdDog faces the prospect of being damaged through the 22 Bolin Defendants' unlawful possession and use of BirdDog's confidential and 23 proprietary information to compete with BirdDog in the marketplace. The Bolin 24 Defendants', Mr. Lo's, and Ms. Lee's improper and unlawful actions have not only 25 cost lost revenue and profit but have forced BirdDog to scramble to seek performance 26 elsewhere and incur additional costs in doing so.

13 the August 2022 Purchase Agreement, the October 2022 Purchase Agreement, the 14 March 2023 Purchase Agreement and the May 2023 Purchase Agreement, and have 15 refused to return to BirdDog any of the remaining $3,060,883.10 they are now 16 unlawfully withholding.

17 87. As an actual and proximate result of the foregoing breaches of contract,
18 BirdDog has suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages, including direct,
19 consequential, and incidental losses and lost profits, in an amount to be proved at trial 20 in excess of $3,060,883.10.

21 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

22 BREACH OF CONTRACT - NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

23 (By Plaintiff BirdDog Australia Against the Bolin Defendants)

24 88. BirdDog incorporates and realleges the above paragraphs of this 25 Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

26 89. The NDA is an enforceable written contract between and among 27 BirdDog Australia, on the one hand, and Bolin Limited on behalf of itself and Bolin
28 LLC, on the other hand, whereby the Bolin Defendants agreed to keep confidential

1 the “valuable and proprietary information” of BirdDog, including the BirdDog Trade 2 Secrets, and requiring the Bolin Defendants to “maintain the confidential nature of,” 3 “not, without the prior consent of BirdDog...disclose any of,” and “not use or 4 disclose or reproduce...for any purpose” any of the BirdDog Trade Secrets other than 5 as specifically approved by BirdDog. The NDA is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6 90. BirdDog Australia has fully performed all conditions, covenants and 7 promises required to be performed on its part in accordance with the NDA, except to 8 the extent that its performance was waived, excused or prevented by the Bolin 9 Defendants.

10 91. The Bolin Defendants materially breached the NDA by, inter alia, 11 improperly using and disclosing BirdDog’s strategies, ideas, concepts, methods, 12 methodologies, processes, systems, know how, trade secrets, intellectual property, 13 budgets, marketing or business plans, projections, diagrams, flow charts, computer 14 software and programs, research data, transaction data, sales information, product 15 information, client lists, technical information, business or financial information, lists 16 and information relating to customers and clients, employee information, financier 17 information or supplier information, or any dealings, transactions, affairs or any other 18 information in any form, including the BirdDog Trade Secrets, without BirdDog’s 19 authorization or consent.

20 92. As an actual and proximate result of the foregoing breaches of the NDA,
21 BirdDog has suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages, including direct,
22 consequential, and incidental losses and lost profits, in an amount to be proved at trial
23 in excess of this Court’s jurisdictional minimum.

24 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

25 VIOLATIONS OF THE DEFEND TRADE SECRETS ACT OF 2016, 18

26 U.S.C. § 1832, ET SEQ

27 (Against All Defendants)

28 93. BirdDog incorporates and realleges the above paragraphs of this

1 Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

2 94. BirdDog incurred significant costs to develop trade secrets with 3 independent economic value unique to the development, manufacture and sale of 4 BirdDog cameras and its business and which derive such independent economic 5 value from these trade secrets not being generally known to, and not being readily 6 ascertainable through proper means by, another person who can obtain economic 7 value from disclosure or use of the same. These include, inter alia, the BirdDog
8 Trade Secrets, which include the Technical Trade Secrets and the Economic Trade 9 Secrets. The BirdDog Trade Secrets are vital to maintaining its business and 10 competitive advantage in the marketplace.

11 95. At all relevant times, BirdDog has taken reasonable efforts under the 12 circumstances to maintain the confidentiality of the BirdDog Trade Secrets, such as 13 through the use of nondisclosure and confidentiality agreements obliging employees 14 and consultants with access to the BirdDog Trade Secrets to not to use or disclose the 15 BirdDog Trade Secrets or information relating to the BirdDog Trade Secrets, 16 password protection and other means to maintain the secrecy of the BirdDog Trade 17 Secrets, and otherwise maintained adequate security to protect BirdDog files, 18 computers, documents and other records that stored information relating to the 19 BirdDog Trade Secrets.

20 96. The Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 improperly, 21 without authorization and in furtherance of a conspiracy between and among 22 themselves, acquired the BirdDog Trade Secrets from BirdDog by improper means 23 and without authorization, inter alia, by inducing BirdDog to disclose the BirdDog
24 Trade Secrets during a period that they misrepresented their intention to do business 25 with BirdDog as an OEM manufacturer.

26 97. The Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 improperly, 27 without authorization and in furtherance of a conspiracy between and among 28 themselves, used and disclosed the BirdDog Trade Secrets, inter alia, by disclosing

1 the BirdDog Trade Secrets to persons without authorization, by using the BirdDog 2 Trade Secrets in unfairly competing with BirdDog, by developing, manufacturing, 3 and marketing cameras incorporating the BirdDog Trade Secrets and by otherwise 4 utilizing the BirdDog Trade Secrets in the scope and course of their business.

5 98. The BirdDog Trade Secrets involve interstate and foreign commerce 6 and relate to products that are intended for use and sale in interstate and foreign 7 commerce.

8 99. The Bolin Defendants', Mr. Lo's and Ms. Lee's improper acquisition, 9 use and disclosure of the BirdDog Trade Secrets has caused harm to BirdDog, 10 including direct, consequential, and incidental losses and lost profits, in an amount 11 to be determined at trial.

12 100. BirdDog has no adequate remedy at law to rectify the Bolin
13 Defendants', Mr. Lo's and Ms. Lee's misappropriation. The Bolin Defendants are in 14 direct competition with BirdDog and so BirdDog has suffered and will continue to 15 suffer imminent and irreparable harm as a result of such misappropriation unless and 16 until the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee are temporarily and permanently 17 restrained.

18 101. The aforementioned conduct was despicable, wanton, oppressive, and 19 malicious, and was performed with willful and conscious disregard of BirdDog's
20 rights and with the intent to deprive BirdDog of those rights. Accordingly, BirdDog 21 is entitled to an award of punitive and exemplary damages in an amount to be proved 22 at trial.

23 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

24 VIOLATIONS OF CALIFORNIA UNIFORM TRADE SECRETS ACT, CAL.

25 CIV. CODE § 3426.1

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 102. BirdDog incorporates and realleges the above paragraphs of this 28 Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

1 103. As set forth in paragraph 94, above, which is incorporated by reference
2 as if fully set forth herein, BirdDog incurred significant costs to develop the BirdDog 3 Trade Secrets, which are trade secrets with independent economic value unique to 4 the development, manufacture and sale of BirdDog cameras and its business and 5 which derive such independent economic value from these trade secrets not being 6 generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable through proper means by, 7 another person who can obtain economic value from disclosure or use of the same.

8 104. As set forth in paragraph 95, above, which is incorporated by reference
9 as if fully set forth herein, BirdDog made reasonable efforts under the circumstances 10 to maintain the confidentiality of the BirdDog Trade Secrets.

11 105. As set forth in paragraph 96 and 97, above, which are incorporated by 12 reference as if fully set forth herein, the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee have 13 illegally obtained the BirdDog Trade Secrets and have otherwise used and disclosed 14 the BirdDog Trade Secrets without BirdDog's consent and without regard to 15 BirdDog's rights, and without compensation, permission, or licenses for the benefit 16 of themselves or others.

17 106. BirdDog has no adequate remedy at law to rectify the Bolin
18 Defendants', Mr. Lo's and Ms. Lee's misappropriation. The Bolin Defendants are in 19 direct competition with BirdDog and so BirdDog has suffered and will continue to 20 suffer imminent and irreparable harm as a result of such misappropriation unless and 21 until the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee are temporarily and permanently 22 restrained.

23 107. The aforementioned conduct was despicable, wanton, oppressive, and 24 malicious, and was performed with willful and conscious disregard of BirdDog's
25 rights and with the intent to deprive BirdDog of those rights. Accordingly, BirdDog
26 is entitled to an award of punitive and exemplary damages in an amount to be proved 27 at trial.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

BREACH OF THE IMPLIED COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING - PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

(Against the Bolin Defendants)

108. Except for paragraphs 88-107, inclusive, including the misappropriation of trade secrets and confidential information therein alleged, BirdDog incorporates and realleges the above paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

109. The June 2021 Purchase Agreement, the September 2021 Purchase Agreement, the August 2022 Purchase Agreement, the October 2022 Purchase Agreement, the March 2023 Purchase Agreement and the May 2023 Purchase Agreement each contain an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing which provides that the parties would deal with each other in good faith and would not engage in conduct or exercise discretion in a way that would deprive the other party of the benefits of each of the agreements.

110. The Bolin Defendants breached the implied covenants of good faith and fair dealing by, inter alia, withholding performance and holding BirdDog's funds in order to force acquiescence to Bolin obtaining control of BirdDog, by knowingly and intentionally frustrating and unlawfully interfering with BirdDog's right to receive benefits under these agreements, repudiating their obligations under these agreements, refusing to return to BirdDog any of the consideration paid, using the consideration paid for purposes other than those associated with production and delivery under the agreements, asserting unreasonable demands inconsistent with the terms of the agreements to BirdDog's detriment, and by knowingly, intentionally and in bad faith inducing BirdDog to agree to pay millions of dollars to Bolin when Bolin never intended to provide what BirdDog was entitled to receive in exchange.

111. As an actual and proximate result of the foregoing breaches of contract, BirdDog has suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages, including direct, consequential, and incidental losses and lost profits, in an amount to be proved at trial

1 in excess of $3,060,883.10.

2 SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

3 CONVERSION

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 112. Except for paragraphs 88-107, inclusive, including the misappropriation
6 of trade secrets and confidential information therein alleged, BirdDog incorporates
7 and realleges the above paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

8 113. By the conduct alleged herein, the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee 9 and DOES 3-25 wrongfully misappropriated and unlawfully diverted a specific sum 10 of BirdDog's funds capable of identification in the amount of $3,060,883.10 for their 11 own personal use and in breach of their obligations to BirdDog. BirdDog did not 12 consent to the Bolin Defendants', Mr. Lo's, Ms. Lee's and DOES 3-25's improper 13 misappropriation, diversion, use or retention of its funds.

14 114. As an actual and proximate result of the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms.
15 Lee and DOES 3-25's conversion, BirdDog has suffered damages in the amount of 16 $3,060,883.10, together with interest thereon.

17 115. The aforementioned conduct was despicable, wanton, oppressive, and 18 malicious, and was performed with willful and conscious disregard of BirdDog's
19 rights and with the intent to deprive BirdDog of those rights. Accordingly, BirdDog
20 is entitled to an award of punitive and exemplary damages in an amount to be proved 21 at trial.

22 SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

23 VIOLATIONS OF CAL. PENAL CODE § 496, ET SEQ

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 116. Except for paragraphs 88-107, inclusive, including the misappropriation
26 of trade secrets and confidential information therein alleged, BirdDog incorporates 27 and realleges the above paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

28 117. California Penal Code Section 496(a) provides, "Every person...who

1 conceals, sells, withholds, or aids in concealing, selling, or withholding any property 2 from the owner, knowing that the property to be stolen or obtained, shall be punished 3 by imprisonment..." CAL. PENAL CODE § 496. It also provides that "[a] principal in 4 the actual theft of the property may be convicted pursuant to this section." Id.

5 118. California Penal Code Section 496(c) provides that "[a]ny person who 6 has been injured by a violation of subdivision (a)...may bring an action for three 7 times the amount of actual damages, if any, sustained by the plaintiff, costs of suit, 8 and reasonable attorney's fees." Id.

9 119. The Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 knowingly and 10 intentionally received, concealed or withheld stolen property from BirdDog or aided 11 in receiving, concealing or withholding stolen property, and otherwise unlawfully 12 maintained ownership and dominion over BirdDog's property by theft, including by 13 stealing and continuing to withhold $3,060,883.10 in BirdDog funds.

14 120. As a proximate result of the foregoing, BirdDog has been damaged in 15 an amount to be proved at trial that is not less than $3,060,883.10 and BirdDog is 16 entitled to recover three times that amount, plus its reasonable attorney's fees.

17 EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

18 MONEY HAD AND RECEIVED

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 121. Except for paragraphs 88-107, inclusive, including the misappropriation
21 of trade secrets and confidential information therein alleged, BirdDog incorporates 22 and realleges the above paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

23 122. As set forth herein, BirdDog paid specific and identifiable sums to the 24 Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 under the mistaken belief that 25 the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 had the present intent and 26 current capability to comply or cause compliance with the June 2021 Purchase 27 Agreement, the September 2021 Purchase Agreement, the August 2022 Purchase
28 Agreement, the October 2022 Purchase Agreement, the March 2023 Purchase

1 Agreement and the May 2023 Purchase Agreement. There have been material 2 breaches and failures of consideration under the June 2021 Purchase Agreement, the 3 September 2021 Purchase Agreement, the August 2022 Purchase Agreement, the 4 October 2022 Purchase Agreement, the March 2023 Purchase Agreement and the 5 May 2023 Purchase Agreement, but the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and 6 DOES 3-25 have refused to return any of these sums to BirdDog. As a result, the 7 Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 have become indebted to 8 BirdDog for the amounts improperly withheld, together with interest thereon.

9 123. There being no justification and it being inequitable to allow the Bolin 10 Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 to retain and be enriched by these sums, 11 restitution should be made and the sums paid by BirdDog should be immediately 12 disgorged by the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 and paid to 13 BirdDog.

14 124. As an actual and proximate result of the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms.
15 Lee and DOES 3-25's conduct, BirdDog has suffered damages in the amount of 16 $3,060,883.10, together with interest thereon.

NINTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

INTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE WITH PROSPECTIVE ECONOMIC

ADVANTAGE

(Against All Defendants)

21 125. Except for paragraphs 88-107, inclusive, including the misappropriation
22 of trade secrets and confidential information therein alleged, BirdDog incorporates 23 and realleges the above paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

24 126. BirdDog's economic relationships with its customers provide for 25 significant prospective economic benefits for BirdDog amounting to millions of 26 dollars annually.

27 127. The Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 knew of 28 BirdDog's economic relationships with its customers and that those economic

1 relationships provide for significant prospective economic benefits for BirdDog 2 amounting to millions of dollars annually.

3 128. The Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 committed 4 intentional and independently wrongful acts that were designed, and which they 5 knew, were substantially likely to result in a disruption of BirdDog's business and to 6 interfere with BirdDog's economic relationships with its customers. These actions
7 included, inter alia, the Bolin Defendants', Mr. Lo's, Ms. Lee's and DOES 3-25's
8 intentional withholding and interference with performance under the June 2021
9 Purchase Agreement, the September 2021 Purchase Agreement, the August 2022
10 Purchase Agreement, the October 2022 Purchase Agreement, the March 2023
11 Purchase Agreement and the May 2023 Purchase Agreement, misrepresentations 12 regarding their ability and intention to provide performance under those agreements 13 and camera supply to BirdDog, using nonperformance under those agreements and 14 receipt and withholding of stolen funds in violation of law.

15 129. But for the conduct of the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 16 3-25, BirdDog's economic relationships with its customers, including customers
17 whose orders BirdDog was unable to fulfill and customers who purchased products 18 of BirdDog's competitors, including competing products of Bolin Defendants, would 19 have been less costly and more profitable for BirdDog in such a way as to result in 20 additional economic benefits to BirdDog.

21 130. The aforementioned conduct was despicable, wanton, oppressive and 22 malicious and was performed with willful and conscious disregard of BirdDog's
23 rights and with the intent to deprive BirdDog of those rights. Accordingly, BirdDog
24 is entitled to an award of punitive and exemplary damages in an amount to be proved 25 at trial.

26
27
28

TENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
VIOLATIONS OF BUS. & PROF. CODE § 17200, ET SEQ.
(Against All Defendants)

131. Except for paragraphs 88-107, inclusive, including the misappropriation of trade secrets and confidential information therein alleged, BirdDog incorporates and realleges the above paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

132. The acts of the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 as herein alleged constitute unlawful, unfair and deceptive business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., including without limitation because they violate federal and state statutes prohibiting deceptive and fraudulent activity, because they violate Cal. Penal Code § 496, and because they involve the use of misrepresentations in order to induce BirdDog to pay money to which the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 are not entitled.

133. The unlawful, unfair and deceptive business practices of the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 as herein alleged constitute unfair competition and are an ongoing and continuing threat to BirdDog's business. As a direct and proximate result of these acts, the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 have been unjustly enriched, and in the future will continue to be unjustly enriched by, among other things, their use of BirdDog's funds for improper purposes, inducing BirdDog to pay money and enter into what the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee and DOES 3-25 considered to be bogus agreements, knowingly withholding and intentionally failing to deliver products under agreements, and repudiating legal obligations without returning consideration paid.

134. BirdDog has been damaged in its money and property by the Bolin Defendants', Mr. Lo', Ms. Lee' and DOES 3-25's unlawful, unfair and deceptive conduct as alleged herein, and will continue to be damaged by their conduct until it is enjoined. BirdDog has been irreparably injured by such unlawful, unfair and deceptive conduct.

135. The Court should find that Defendants' actions violate California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. and order such restitution, disgorgement and injunctive relief permitted by law, including without limitation a preliminary injunction and permanent injunction.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, BirdDog prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

A. That BirdDog recover damages, including direct, consequential, and incidental losses and lost profits, in an amount to be proved at trial in excess of $3,060,883.10;

C. On its Seventh Claim for Relief, that BirdDog be awarded three times the amount of actual damages;

E. That Defendants be ordered to pay BirdDog pre- and post-judgment interest on all damages, monetary or otherwise;

F. That Defendants be ordered to pay BirdDog punitive and exemplary damages in an amount according to proof in an amount sufficient to deter each Defendant from engaging in similar conduct against BirdDog or others and to deter Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in similar malicious, offensive and bad faith conduct in the future;

G. That BirdDog be awarded an amount equal to Defendants' unjust enrichment to the extent that such unjust enrichment is not reflected in the award of damages, and that a constructive trust in favor of BirdDog be imposed over Defendants' ill-gotten gains and profits;

H. That the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo, Ms. Lee, DOES 3-25 and all persons in active concert or participation with them, be enjoined and restrained from further

1 wrongful conduct, including without limitation from possessing, disclosing or using 2 the BirdDog Trade Secrets in any manner whatsoever;

3 I. That any products in the possession, custody or control of the Bolin 4 Defendants, Mr. Lo or Ms. Lee that incorporate the BirdDog Trade Secrets be 5 impounded, as well as all molds, software, hardware and matrices by which the 6 BirdDog Trade Secrets may be used or otherwise misappropriated;

7 J. That the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms. Lee be ordered to return to 8 BirdDog all tangible items, documents, designs, software, hardware, diagrams, notes, 9 sketches or any other memorialization incorporating the BirdDog Trade Secrets, as 10 well as all BirdDog property converted by the Bolin Defendants, Mr. Lo and Ms.
11 Lee;

12 K. For such other equitable relief as is requested above and as may be 13 appropriate under the circumstances, including without limitation a writ of 14 attachment, seizure and permanent injunctive relief; and 15 L. That the Court award BirdDog such other and further relief as the Court 16 deems just and proper.

17 JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
18

19 BirdDog demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.
